THE FAIR .- There was certainly as much interest manifested in the Fair at Naughton Hall, on Saturday night as on any of the preceding evenings. Quite a round sum was realized. New features are being added to keep up the interest and to add to the enjoyment of visitors. To-night a novel object is to be raffled for. One of Charley Wagner's imported Scotch terriers, rejocing the immense sobriquet of "Spiv," will be awarded to the holder of the lucky number. He is not a very big dog, but he's a mighty good one, and like his great namesake is no triend of rats.

The drawing last night was productive of much amusement. A young friend of ours drew a pair of baby stockings at the Wheel of Fortune. Wishing to get a joke nd the grand masquerade to be given on on the undersigned he put them up for Valentine's night, Friday evening, Feb. raffle at five cents a chance. When they came to be drawn they fell to us. They socked it to us, that time. Well, well, they are handy to have in the house, as Mrs. Toodles said of the coffin. A handsom white linen skirt was drawn by Rev. Father Ahrens. The following is the report: P. Rourk, holding No. 48, drew a pair of fine calf boots; John Joyce, No. 34, a breakfast shawl; Splvins, No. 2. pair child's socks; Rev. Father Ahrens, No. 16. white linen skirt; G. E. We are in no worse condition than our neighbors, yet there is much destitution and suffering among our unemployed poor. It is to be hoped that the return of spring, with the resumption of agricultural labor and all sorts of out-door work necessarily suspended at this season of the year, will bring substantial relief.

WORTH WORKING FOR .- The high compliment paid us by our friends of the Westbote in their Saturday's paper, is an expression of good will and appreciation worth laboring for. To say that we are proud of it is but feebly to express our feelings. We feel that it is to the great courtesy of the editors of the Westbote. more than to any ability of ours, we are indebted for the kind wishes expressed in the following very imperfect translation:

Baltimore Cattle Market-Feb. 6. BEEF CAPILE-The offerings at the BEEF CAPTLE—The offerings at the Scales during the past week amounted to 670 head, against 1,054 last week. Of the number offered 62 head came from West Virginia, 269 from Ohlo, 170 from Virginia, and 114 from Illinois, over the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, 39 from Maryland and 16 from Pennsylvania on foot. Of the receipts 375 head were taken by Baltimore butchers. 18 by farmers for grazing, 130 butchers, 18 by farmers for grazing, 130 sold to speculators for Eastern markets, and 147 head to Washington and Annapolis butchers. Prices to-day ranged as follows: Old cows and scalawags at $4 50@ 5 00; ordinary thin steers, oxen and cows $5@c; fair to good stock cattle $5 50@6 50; fair quality beeves $7@8; and the very best beeves $8@10 per 100 bs, the average price being about $6.75. With a moderate supply the market opened at an advance of about 50c per 100 lbs, but closed very dull at about last week's prices.

SHEEP—The receipts during the past week have been fair, but mostly of common and inferior qualities, good and extra fat sheep continue in demand. Prices ranged as follows: Common to fair at 4@5c; fair to good 5@6c, and extra 6@7c per h gross. HOGS—The supply has been moderate during the past week, and with a good demand prices have advanced about 75 cents per 100 lbs on the rates of last week, ranging at the close to-day from $10 to $11 50 per 100 lbs net for fair to good fat hogs, and market active.

New York Dry Goods Market-Feb. 8. The Dry Goods market is buoyant for staple cottons, and prices of calicoes tend-ing upward. All of Garner & Co.'s prints ing upward. All of Garner & Co.'s prints are withdrawn from market, and will be a half cent higher Monday morning. A moskeag 12c, Lowell Ile, and Wamsutta 9½c. It is very probable that Manchester and American will be also advanced to 12½c; indeed it is likely all prints, except Merrimack and Cocheco, will be advanced. Owing to the upward tendency of cloth and cotton, New York mids muslin is very scarce at 26c. In fact the whole market is bare of goods, as the production for months bare of goods, as the production for months ahead has been taken by shirt manufacturers. In other styles of cotton no material change—tendency upward.
